

THE FIRST ANNUAL GREEN VALE SCAVENGER HUNT
AT THE
AMERICAN MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY

You can complete this hunt in any order. If one area is very crowded, go someplace else.

Somewhere in this museum is a skeleton named after a Beatles song. Take a picture of it.

(put your picture over there →)

Lucy

- How old is this skeleton? 3.2 million years old
- What song was she named after? Lucy in the sky w/ diamonds
- How tall was she? Short

This rock has a picture of a Horse carved into it. Trace the picture with a pen in Notability.

What is this?
Cuneiform Tablet

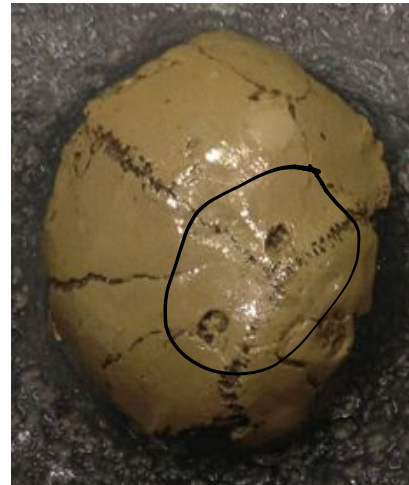

Where was it found?
Iraq

How old is it?
4,040 years

The skull in this picture has two bite marks on it.

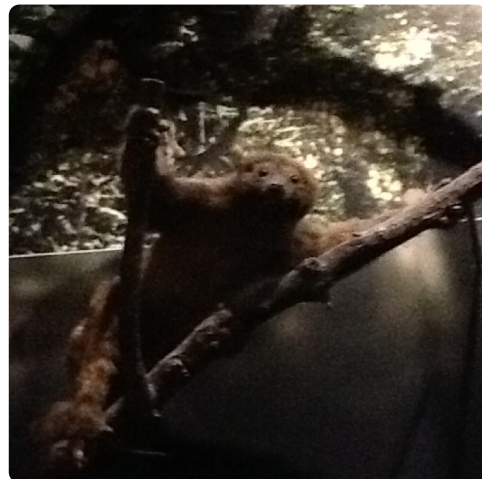

- Circle the bite marks
- What bit the skull? How do you know?

A leopard bit the skull because
The teeth of it fits.

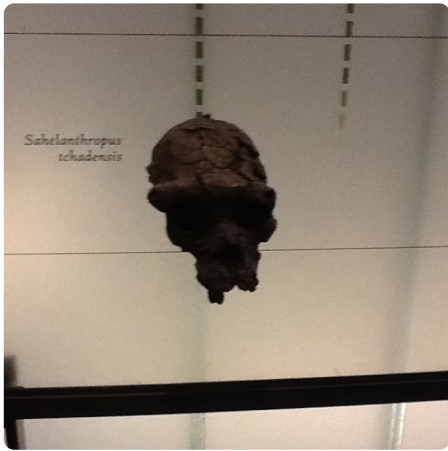

Take a picture of a potto.

(put your picture over there →)

How similar is potto DNA to human DNA? 96 %

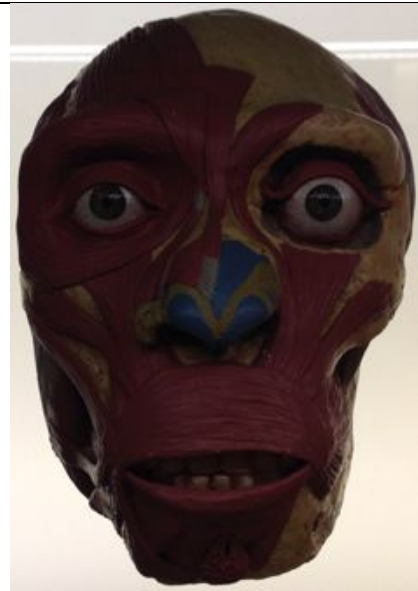

Take a picture of the oldest hominid fossil in the entire exhibit.

(← put your picture over there)

How old is this fossil? 72 million years
What is it? Sahelanthropus tchadensis

A diorama is a model of a scene. There are three dioramas in this gallery. Explain what is going on in the Life During the Ice Age diorama.

The man is bring wood for a fire. There is a cave and there is a woman in it. It is very cold.

Find this object.
Watch some of the video that goes with it.

What is the name of the site where Sima 5 was found?

Pit of the Bones

Draw the path that first Americans may have followed to get to North America 20,000 years ago.

How long ago did this hominid live? 18 thousand years old

In what country was it found? Flores, Indonesia

Take a picture of a hyena.

(put your picture over there →)

Where is this cave painting from? Southern France

How old was Turkana Boy when he died? Eight years old.

Take a picture of something found in Egypt.

(← put your picture over there)

What is it? _____

How old is it? 30 million