

THE FIRST ANNUAL GREEN VALE SCAVENGER HUNT
AT THE
AMERICAN MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY

You can complete this hunt in any order. If one area is very crowded, go someplace else.

Somewhere in this museum is a skeleton named after a Beatles song. Take a picture of it.

(put your picture over there →)

- How old is this skeleton? _____
- What song was she named after? _____
- How tall was she? _____

This rock has a picture of a _____ carved into it.
Trace the picture with a pen in Notability.

What is this?

Where was it found?

How old is it?

The skull in this picture has two bite marks on it.

- Circle the bite marks
- What bit the skull? How do you know?

Take a picture of a potto.

(put your picture over there →)

How similar is potto DNA to human DNA? _____%

Take a picture of the oldest hominid fossil in the entire exhibit.

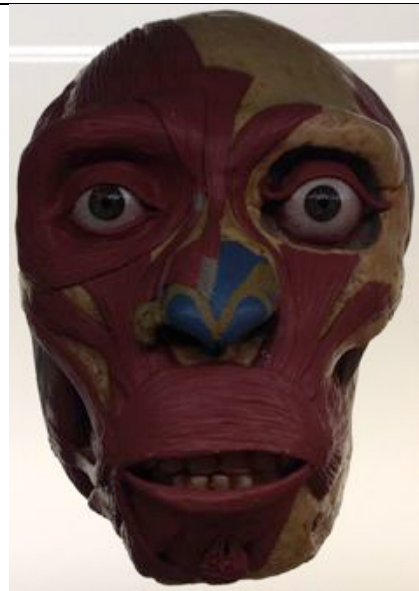

(← put your picture over there)

How old is this fossil? _____

What is it? _____

A diorama is a model of a scene. There are three dioramas in this gallery. Explain what is going on in the Life During the Ice Age diorama.

Find this object.
Watch some of the video that goes with it.

What is the name of the site where Sima 5 was found?

Draw the path that first Americans may have followed to get to North America 20,000 years ago.

How long ago did this hominid live? _____

In what country was it found?

Take a picture of a hyena.

(put your picture over there →)

Where is this cave painting from? _____

How old was Turkana Boy when he died? _____

Take a picture of something found in Egypt.

(← put your picture over there)

What is it? _____

How old is it? _____